Our column, we fear, will run to dances this week, possibly for no good reason at all. Maybe that provokes all this is the rumor that stags will be admitted to the Panhel Prom as a means of saving a dance, which for years has dragged, and dragged, and dragged, so far as popular co-eds are concerned, since they can't be cut out from five to twenty times during the course of one waltz.

Be that as it may, we understand the partners of Jack and George, two conservative men-about-campus, received quite a rush at the A. D. Pi subscription dance the other evening. Their ladies, it seems, were appearing currently at the Palace. Further details will be brought out in the Petitioner, which will appear at the Panhel on May 2—the same evening selected for the big party for the Glee Club, by the way.

Representatives returning from the Pi Delta convention at Penn State bring all kinds of news about the Interfraternity Ball there. Each of the 43 fraternities which took part in the affair contributed $50, it appears. The "Cotton Pickers," whose fame is known, furnished the music to which 1,500 to 2,000 persons danced in the huge gymnasium or Recreation Hall, as they call it. No stags except the visiting Elks—except us, we mean Pi Deltas, were allowed. And thereby hangs a tale.

Several men, being anxious to hear the orchestra, found a way of entrance, even though the portals were guarded by scores of college policemen. One-half of them dressed in evening gowns (vintage unknown), put on silk stockings, squeezed their feet into dancing slippers, powdered and robed their faces, and sallied gracefully into the ballroom on the arms of their partners. True, boyish bobs have been out a long time, but how were the bewildered cops to prove that the youngsters weren't ladies? Each of them, by the way, received a nice appointment book as a favor, from the committee in charge, which was equally dumbfounded.

These lawyers! Dr. Upham, who teaches commercial law, was trying to explain who lost when a negotiable instrument had a forgery on it. He asserted "A and B do not have the same high degree of innocence that C has." It's well to keep in mind that even when you are innocent, you may need a lawyer—you may have a lesser degree of innocence than the other party.

We are interested in the subjects for the inter-Greek debates. The women will talk about full time employment of married women in industries, and to our knowledge, no good debater is married and knows anything she will talk about. The men will be equally disinterested in their subject of installment buying, because whoever heard of a fraternity man having money?

The linotype operator, in writing the headline for the story of the first round of debates, left out an "e" so that the wording read "First eliminations to be held." We thought debating was to stop war, not to cause it.

On more or less good authority, we pass along a story to you. It seems, or it is alleged, that a mouse-eared rat made its appearance in some sorority rooms during the course of a meeting. True, it had made previous visits when the rooms were deserted, and had gnawed holes in the door and in some bacon stored in a cupboard, but this time, he entered the meeting itself, and without the password or grip.

The sorority arose as one woman, and in fact many got all up in the air over this rat, which had one red eye and one white one. It is even our impression that a committee was appointed to adjust the matter, but no one knows just what was done, for after all, sorority meetings are secret.

There's something a bit pathetic in the fact that a valentine awaits a person named Scott in the University telephone exchange. Maybe a quarrel has been started or is continuing just because the valentine has not been called for. We can't help feeling sad, but maybe it's the rainy weather.

Some editor roundly denounces double-parking on G Street. To this we wish to add our perennial objection to co-eds stopping to talk to each other on stair landings, at the head or foot of stairs, and in doorways. Of course, the dear young things will continue to do it, but we just want them to know that if they do, we won't love them any more.

HONOR SORORITY TO BE INSTALLED FOR FROSH GIRLS

Alpha Lambda Delta, Scholastic Society For Freshmen Women Initiates Saturday Night

SEVEN IN LOCAL GROUP; BANQUET IS TO FOLLOW

Mrs. Barrows, Honorary Member, Will Speak Along With Dean Leonard of Illinois

Thirteen women were pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary scholastic fraternity for freshmen women, Sunday morning at the home of Nanette Dembitz, prior to the installation to take place Saturday night at the Willard Hotel.

Dean Marie Leonard, dean of women at the University of Illinois, and national grand president of the organization, will come to Washington early Saturday afternoon to be present at the installation ceremony and the subsequent banquet. The ceremony is scheduled to begin at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., will be an other speaker at the banquet and also Mrs. Vinnie Barrows, advisor for women at George Washington, who will attend in her capacity of honorary member. Mildred Burnham, president of the local chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta, will act as toastmistress and will give a short address; Nanette Dembitz will speak on behalf of the initiates.

Two Groups of Initiates

Seven sophomore women will be initiated as charter members, while the ceremony for the six freshmen will follow this. The sophomores are: Carolyn Brooks, Mildred Burnham, Pi Beta Phi, president of "Les Jongleurs," "Troubadour" cast, and member of Cherry Tree staff; Mary Maciulla, who was a member of the National Honor Society for Secondary Schools; Jeanette Bernstein; Margaret Payne, Alpha Delta Theta, and member of the Glee Club; Mae Joseph; and Nanette Dembitz, Alpha Epsilon Phi, vice-president of the Liberal Club and assistant editor of The Hatchet, who was also a member of the high school honor society.

The six freshmen are: Virginia Gummel, Delta Zeta, assistant manager of Archery, class swimming team, and member of the National Honor Society for Secondary Schools; Marjorie Fick, Sigma Kappa, freshman soccer team, graduate of Eastern; Elizabeth Churchill, Phi Delta, member of Washington Classical Club, from Western; Ray Miller, Alpha Delta Theta, member of Women's Athletic Association of Western High; Jane Menefee, Pi Beta Phi, W. A. A., from Eastern; and Elizabeth Earrell, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Alpha Lambda Delta was founded in 1924 at the University of Illinois to further high scholastic endeavor among freshmen women. The requirement for admission is an average between the two highest grades given at the university with none of those grades below the second highest for the freshman year or for the first semester. The sophomores in the George Washington Chapter were admitted on the first basis and the freshmen on the second.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA TAKES IN TWO MEMBERS

On Thursday, March 27, the Alpha Delta Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa held its spring initiation at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House. Provost William Allen Wilbur, who is one of the charter members of the local group, conducted the initiation.

At this time, two men were initiated. Kenneth Iverson, a member of the Theta Delta Chi, and Dr. Lowell Joseph Bagatz were the two who were chosen. These were the only candidates who were deemed worthy of this signal honor. Following the initiation, a buffet supper was served.

DEBATE BANQUET, APRIL 16

Tickets are now on sale for the annual debate banquet which will be held at the University Club next Wednesday, April 16. Contrary to custom, the banquet, which is to be formal, will be open to the public, anyone interested in public speaking or in the promotion of the debating art being welcome.

FRESHMEN WOMEN

Mary Shick, librarian of the Walter Reed Hospital, who was scheduled to speak yesterday to the freshmen girls, will speak next Tuesday, April 14, instead. The vocation she will discuss is librarianship. The lecture will be held in M-10, 12 o'clock.

Dr. Paul Bartsch Receives Scholarship For Travel From Smithsonian Institution

Southern Bahamas and Islands North of Cuba To Be Explored In Efforts To Discover Mollusks and Other Fauna For Further Knowledge of Heredity and Origins

Dr. Paul Bartsch, Professor of Zoology at George Washington University, has again been granted The Walter Rathbone Bacon traveling scholarship by the Smithsonian Institution.

This scholarship is granted annually to some zoologist by the Smithsonian Institution, to pursue studies outside the United States. The scholarship is not restricted to the Smithsonian Institution staff, but may be granted to anyone whose projects seem promising. Dr. Bartsch has held it for the last two years.

The expedition planned for this summer will be devoted to the southern Bahamas and the islands lying off the north shore of Cuba. Twenty of them, in all, will be visited.

Vessel To Be Chartered

The professor says that if there are any young naturalists at the University who wish to gain some field experience he will be glad to have them confer with him.

The trip will be made in a chartered vessel, probably some combination sail and power boat. Negotiations for this vessel are now being made. The sailing will probably start from Miami, Havana, or Nassau, early in June.

The primary object is to collect material to form the basis of a monograph. Another field of study is the relationships and differentiations of the fauna as a basis for studies in heredity. A third problem is to trace these fauna to their probable origin in geologic times, and to see if the living material could be used as horizon markers for geologic formations.

Rainy Season Chosen

Collections will be made of fresh water mollusks, some of which serve as intermediate hosts for parasitic worms of man and animals of economic importance, and the hydrogen ion conditions under which these exist will be determined, in the hope that ways may be found for their control or eradication by a change of the hydrogen ion conditions in the water which they inhabit.

Dr. Bartsch chooses the rainy season in spite of its discomforts, for it is at this time that land mollusks which have dug in deeply into nooks, crannies and rocky crevices, or under the rocks slides of talus slopes, are tempted by the moist atmosphere to emerge.

In 1928, under the Walter Rathbone Bacon traveling scholarship, Dr. Bartsch studied the terrestrial mollusks of the West Indies. In this work he had the cooperation of the Cuban Government and that of Dr. Carlos de la Torre, Emeritus President of the University of Havana, the foremost naturalist Cuba has produced, who will be joint author with Dr. Bartsch on the report upon the mollusks of Cuba.

To Tour Unexplored Lands

Dr. Bartsch's object was to complete the survey of those parts not before explored by him in Cuba and to secure large collections of mollusks. Since the beginning of the century he had been making trips at varying intervals to the West Indies, usually with the financial aid of John B. Henderson, Jr., an alumnus of the George Washington University Law School, and a distinguished naturalist as well as diplomat. These previous expeditions had revealed that the islands

Honorary Fraternity Initiates Six New Men

Phi Eta Sigma Also Elects Smoot, President, Watkins, Vice-President

Phi Eta Sigma, freshman-men's honorary fraternity, held an initiation of new members, followed by an election on Friday night, April 4, in Stockton Hall. Those men whose excellent scholastic average has entitled them to membership are Kennedy, C. Watkins, Edward F. Davis, George W. Irving, John B. Lathrop, Jack Permut, and S. Nevitt Smoot.

Following the initiation, a business meeting was held at which officers for the year were elected. Nevitt Smoot, in a closely contested ballot, was chosen president; Kennedy Watkins was unanimously elected vice-president; Jack Permut holds the office of secretary, also by a unanimous vote. An exceedingly close vote made George Irving treasurer. With the installation of the new officers, plans were made for the remainder of the semester.

The next meeting, which will be held April 16, will be attended by the men who became eligible in February. The initiation of these men will take place in a short time.

History Club's Contest Will Close On April 28

Club Meets Today—Manuscripts To Be Judged By History Faculty

Only three weeks remain before the close of the Prize Contest conducted by the History Club. The 500-word histories of the United States must be in the hands of the committee by 5 p. m. on the evening of April 28. Manuscripts may be left at the Information Desk on the first floor of the Woodhull Administration Building. It is requested that manuscripts be typed, but those in longhand will be accepted unless they are illegible.

Calvin Coolidge has released his history of the United States, which may prove helpful to the contestants by way of comparison. Judges of the contest of the History Club will be the faculty of the History Department.

The History Club will hold its next meeting today, in Corcoran Hall 24. Professor Churchill of the History Department, will speak on "The Colonies as the Western Frontier." All are invited to attend. The meeting will begin promptly at 8.15.

G. W. PHARMACY DEPT. IS GAINING WIDE FAME

Local Druggists Show Large and Increasing Interest For Pharmacy School Here

How many of us realize that we have, right here on our campus, a School of Pharmacy which draws students from Ireland, Siam, Jerusalem, Panama, Italy and Argentina?

The School of Pharmacy was founded in 1871, but until 1906 didn't become affiliated with G. W. Dr. Kalusowski was dean for forty years and was succeeded by Dr. Bradley in 1926.

Last spring a campaign was held among the pharmacists and manufacturers of the city in order to secure modern equipment for the laboratories. These laboratories are very distinctive in that they are models of what the prescription department of a professional pharmacy should be. The student learns to manufacture equipment here. In fact, it is the hope of Dr. Briggs, next year's assistant dean, that in the future the students may manufacture medicines to supply the student body.

In connection with the School of Pharmacy is a library which is being constantly enlarged. Plans are being made to establish a pharmaceutical museum, exhibiting types of ancient instruments of pharmacy.

Endow Kalusowski Prize

The local Wholesale Drug Exchange recently established a scholarship in memory of Dean Kalusowski, which is now open.

There is a new fraternity being founded here for students of pharmacy, called Alpha Phi Omicron. Many of the students also belong to a scientific society, Mortar and Pestle.

In the past several years the number of students has increased from 15 to 65, and there are now 11 men on the faculty. Dr. Thompson has just published an article which probably will completely change methods of analysis for ergot. Mr. Brokmeier, attorney for the National Association of Retail Druggists, is instructing in Pharmaceutical Law. Dr. Gibbs, president of Peoples Drug Stores, has established an endowment for the teaching of commercial pharmacy at G. W.

Dr. Briggs invites all interested to go through the laboratories with him.

DR. SHORES TO ADDRESS EPISCOPAL CLUB MEETING

The history of the Church and the meanings of the symbols in the church, will be the subject of an address to be delivered before the next meeting of the Episcopal Club by the Rev. Dr. Shores of St. Marks Episcopal Church. The meeting will be held in Building M, on Thursday, April 19, at 8 p. m. It should be of unusual interest as Dr. Shores is considered an authority on the subject announced. All Episcopal students are cordially invited to attend.

Announcements have also been made as to the club program for the semester which is to include welfare work, picnics and swimming parties. The advisory council of the club is composed of the following faculty members: Professor Delbert, Dr. Irene Corwell, and Prof. Audley Smith. Besides these there are three clerical advisors: Sister Emily Margaret, Dr. Shores and Rev. Morris Derr, of Bladensburg Episcopal Church.

SPRING RECESS

The spring recess will last from Monday, April 21 to Saturday, April 26, inclusive, during which time all class meetings will be suspended.

MARVIN MAKES 3 APPOINTMENTS TO G. W. FACULTY

Johnson, Weida and Davison To Be New Members of Teaching Staff

SIXTEEN ADVANCEMENTS HAVE BEEN ANNOUNCED

Many Promotions Are Made In Colonial School of Medicine

Appointment of three new professors to the faculty of George Washington University, and the promotion in rank of sixteen members of the faculty is announced by Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, President of the University.

The new staff members are Edgar A. J. Johnson, associate professor of economics; Frank Mark Weida, associate professor of mathematics, and James Forrester Davison, assistant professor of law.

The appointment of Prof. Johnson brings to the staff of the department of economics one of the best informed men in the field of economic theory and the history of economic thought. Prof. Johnson holds the degree of Ph. D. from Harvard University, although his undergraduate work was done at the University of Illinois. In addition to teaching at the University of Oklahoma, the University of Illinois and Harvard University, he has traveled extensively in this country and abroad, and has spent some time in research at the British Museum.

Is Author of Treatises

Prof. Johnson is the author of a number of treatises, among them "The History of American Economic Thought in the Seventeenth Century," which is the first of a projected work of six volumes on the history of American economic thought. His courses in the university will include principles of economics, economy theory, and transportation.

Dr. Frank Mark Weida, who joins the faculty as associate professor of mathematics, holds the degree of Ph. D. from the University of Iowa and the degree of bachelor of science from Kenyon College. He has taught at the University of Chicago, the University of Iowa, Montana State University, and Yeshiva University. Prof. Weida has to his credit a long list of publications in the field of mathematics and is a member of numerous scientific and learned societies.

The newly appointed member of the law school faculty, Prof. Davison, is a graduate of Harvard University, with the degree of LL. M. and S. J. D., and of Dalhousie University, with the degrees of A. B. and LL. B. Prof. Davison has taught at the University of Toronto and at Harvard University.

The following faculty promotions are announced:

Dudley Wilson Wilbur, from associate professor of sociology to professor of sociology; John Albert Eklund, from assistant professor of political science to associate professor of political science; Paul Chesters, from openheim from assistant professor of law to associate professor of law; Paul William Bowman, from instructor in botany to assistant professor of botany; Paul Royce Nash, from instructor in electrical engineering to assistant professor of electrical engineering; Benjamin Douglas Van Evert, from instructor in chemistry to assistant professor of chemistry; Samuel Burtis Baker, from associate in drawing and painting to professorial lecturer and critic in drawing and painting; Eugen Weisz, from associate in graphic arts to lecturer and critic in graphic arts.

In the Medical School the following faculty promotions are announced:

Frank A. Hornaday, from associate in medicine to clinical professor of medicine; John Alton Reed, from clinical associate in medicine to clinical professor of medicine; Fred August Moss, from clinical instructor in neuropsychiatry to clinical professor of neuropsychiatry; Herman S. Hoffman, from clinical instructor in medicine to clinical associate in medicine; Harold Albert Craft, from associate in biochemistry to assistant professor of biochemistry; Harry Arnold Hull Mc Nitt, from instructor in bacteriology and pathology to clinical instructor in medicine; William Franklin Sheridan, from assistant curator of the museum to instructor in pathology and assistant curator of the museum; Jacob Kotz, from clinical instructor in obstetrics to associate in gynecology.

CHEMISTS HOLD MEETING

The Washington Chapter of The American Chemical Society will hold its next meeting on Thursday, April 10, at 8:00 o'clock, at the Cosmos Club.

WASHINGTON, D. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1930

DOUBLE PARKING

Courtesy, once considered a prime virtue, now seems rather a discarded antique when motorists get together on G Street. A favorite pastime of the motorists who disregard privileges of others is to park double just before classes are let out, then wait, stopping street cars, impeding the others who wish to get out of the traffic tangle, and remaining oblivious of the motorists beside whom they have stopped and who wish to get out into the street.

A few days ago, at a time when there are comparatively few students around the school, this writer noticed ten cars parked double. Some of the cars remained for ten minutes without moving. One stopped by a car whose operator was trying to get out of a close parking place. The driver of the double-parked car merely looked sleepy, despite the efforts of the other operator, for a full two minutes until the vigorous horn woke her up.

It seems to this editor that a bad situation could be remedied by the cooperation of hardly more than 50 motorists who habitually disregard traffic regulations and common courtesy while driving—and parking—on G Street.

A FORWARD MOVE

Another important administrative move on the part of the University authorities was announced last week in the promotion of 16 members of the faculty in varying grades. These individual instructors have served the University well in their years of service, and the reward which has been tendered them is but a small, though quite effective, measure of appreciation on the part of the University for their faithful performance of their trust.

It is often thought in educational circles that ability and faithful service is slow to be recognized, and that the path of the college professor is one beset with many years of unappreciated labor and but a slight and begrudged recognition by those charged with the administration of the University. We are proud that at G. W. this is not the case, but, on the contrary, we have to a limited extent acknowledged some slight obligation to those who have so beneficially labored in our behalf. We congratulate them and bespeak for them continued success and attainment in their chosen fields, to the greater glory of our Alma Mater.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

To impress upon freshman women the importance of scholarship and to keep this idea uppermost in their minds in spite of the varying interests with which they are swamped is the primary purpose of Alpha Lambda Delta.

Later on in the college course the student may realize the value of scholarly endeavor but may then find his record is spoiled and his foundation work faulty on account of neglect in the freshman year. Just previous to graduation, the student, on seriously contemplating the life before him, realizes that the years in college which are for preparation for those to follow are surprisingly short. He may then regret not making good use of his freshman year.

Heretofore there has been no official recognition of scholastic achievement for freshman women. In the future Alpha Lambda Delta will be an honor to which new students can aspire. The organizers and all of the members are to be congratulated for their successful efforts.

Alpha Delta Theta entertained at luncheon Friday in honor of Dr. Ragatz, Professor Gropp, and Professor Protzman.

PHI SIGMA SIGMA BASKETERS WIN

Kappa Kappa Gamma, Runner-Up In Intramural Basketball Series

TENNIS, GOLF PLANNED

Intramural Picnic Planned Early In May; Leader From Cincinnati Addresses Committee

Formal announcement was made at the Intra-Mural Committee meeting last Friday that Phi Sigma Sigma was victor in the Basketball Tournament. This group won the final game from Kappa Kappa Gamma by a score of 29-19. Phi Sigma Sigma, as winner of the tournament, received five points toward the Intra-Mural Trophy. Kappa Kappa Gamma, as runner-up, received three points.

The Intra-Mural Trophy will be presented to the group having the highest number of points from the whole year's program of sports. The trophy is to be presented at the Intra-Mural Picnic, which will be held on or about May the 10th. Places under consideration as appropriate for the picnic are: Black Pond, Va.; Wild Water, Md.; and Rock Creek Park, D.C.

Intra-Mural sports have been given a new impetus by the present favorable spring weather and their outdoor doors program for tennis and golf has made a promising start. At a meeting on April 5th, the Intra-Mural Board decided that the tennis and golf tournaments are to be played in the "Round-Robin" manner, every one having the opportunity of playing with everyone else. Also, each league must play off all the games in that league by the 16th of April. There are two tennis leagues and two golf leagues. Teams in league A are: Kappa Delta, Cates, Colonialettes, Phi Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Epsilon Phi, and Alpha Delta Theta. In league B are: Alpha Delta Pi, Phi Sigma Sigma, Phi Mu, Delta Zeta, Pi Beta Phi, Chi Omega, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Golf Leagues Given

The golf leagues, also, were announced. League A, consists of: Delta Zeta, Cates, Alpha Delta Theta, Pi Beta Phi, and the Colonialettes. League B contains six teams: Chi Omega, Phi Mu, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Catherine, Carver, addressed the committee meeting last Friday afternoon. She spoke on "Outstanding Facts of the Growth and Popularity of Intra-Mural Sports at the University of Cincinnati." Due to the Intra-Mural idea of sports at that University, Miss Carver said, sorority dominance in college athletics has been done away with. "Athletics for All" ceased to be a myth and became a reality and a higher degree of sportsmanship was developed. The broadened horizon insured activities for all girls and the health of the group as a whole was raised. Intra-Mural Sports at that university provided a larger scope for social contact and the number of girls reached was increased.

G. W. Rifle Team Ranks Fourth In Sectional Tilt

Navy Repeats Victory at Annapolis In Intercollegiate Rifle Matches

The George Washington men's rifle team won fourth place in the sectional intercollegiate matches held at Annapolis last Saturday. The strong Navy team won the championship with a score of 1375. West Virginia was second with 1341, and Maryland third with 1333. The local team's score of 1320 was their lowest of the season. The G. W. men were greatly handicapped by the loss of Parsons, who was declared ineligible for the matches.

The high man for the matches was Moore, of the Navy team, with a score of 283. Captain Harrell led the G. W. team with 273. All the other G. W. scores showed the effects of the severe strain undergone in the championship matches.

This match was the last one of the indoor season. The outdoor season will start next week. It is expected that the team will be more successful than it has proved in indoor competition.

Intra-Mural Schedule Changes To Be Posted

Columbian College Defeats Law School While Engineers Beat Pharmacists

Because of the entrance of the Pre-Medical Group into the intra-mural baseball league and the inability of the Engineering College to play on Mondays the schedule has necessarily been changed and will be posted as soon as possible.

Captain Farrington has called a meeting of all team managers on Thursday, April 10th, at the gymnasium office. Managers are asked to be present at 2 p. m. Score sheets are to be turned in at that time.

In the two opening games the Columbian College team defeated the Law School team 13 to 4, and the Engineers defeated the Pharmacists, 11 to 7. Managers of all teams, both in the Intra-Mural League and in the Interfraternity League are asked to keep box scores of all games in order to receive recognition.

CHEERLEADERS NOTICE

A meeting of all men signed up for cheerleading is to be held Friday, April 11th, at the Gym, at 12:30 sharp. Any man not reporting at this meeting will automatically be dropped from the competition rolls.

On Saturday, April 12th, try-outs for team position will be given.

Buff And Blue Frosh Defeated By Boatmen

Potomac Boat Club Five Buries In Last Half To Take Victory

In their last game of the season, and in the semi-finals of the A. A. U. tournament, the George Washington Cubs were defeated by the Potomac Boat Club Five, 30 to 27. The game was played last Tuesday night in the Tech High Gymnasium.

The Cubs started well, and at half time were in the van, 18 to 8. At the start of the second half, however, the Boatmen slowly cut down the lead of the Frosh, and despite Burgess' great scoring activities, passed the Freshmen, and went ahead to win by three points. The Potomac Boat Club is the only team to defeat the Cubs which the Cubs have not defeated. They have lost only three games this year. They were on the short end of the score in games with Georgetown Frosh and with the Catholic University Freshmen, but the Cubs defeated both the Hilltoppers and the Cardinals in return games, to even the score.

Med. School Seniors Lose To Underclasses

Undeclared Team Bows To Freshman-Sophomore Bowling Merger

The otherwise undefeated bowling team of the seniors at the G. W. Medical School had a little surprise last Saturday by being trimmed by a team composed of sophomores and freshmen of the same school. The senior team, however, was weakened by the fact that its star bowler, Jones, was absent.

Those bowling for the seniors were Katzman, Dobkin, Kelly, Delgreto, and Merlo (anchor man). The opposing team was represented by Amster and Grain of the sophomore class, Somers, Richardson, Shreehan, and Reeves (anchor man) of the freshman class. Among those bowling the best were Grain, with a total of 347; Reeves, with 327, and Merlo with 326.

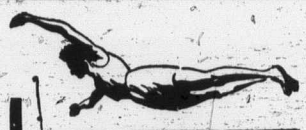

The scores were as follows:

1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Seniors	477	468	467	1412
Opponents	518	440	533	1491

The seniors are still unsatisfied and say that they will reap a mighty revenge at a later date.

WEATHER ENDS GAMES AS FRATERNITIES OPEN

Theta-Delta Victorious In First Game of Interfraternity Season

In the only baseball game that was finished, Theta-Delta Chi, runners up of last year, defeated Sigma Nu by a score of 9 to 0 in the first game of the interfraternity series. This was a shortened game, the rain causing it to be called in the 4th inning. Nevertheless, the Theta-Delta win was very decisive. Dick Bette pitched almost perfect ball, allowing only one hit and that was the only man to get on base. Sigma Nu was powerless before his speed, and did not hit one ball to the outfield.

Much power was shown in the Theta-Delta offense. Out of twenty-seven times at bat, they hit safely sixteen times. The longest hit of the game was a home run made by Page in the first inning which scored three runs.

This was the only game in either league to be finished. The rain, which continued throughout the day, effectively stopped any further play. The scheduled games were: In League A, S. A. E. vs. K. S.; T. D. X. vs. S. N.; and K. A. vs. P. U. O. In the League B, the following games were on the sheet: P. S. K. vs. Acacia; S. X. vs. D. T. D.; while S. P. E. drew a bye.

Theta-Delta-Sigma Nu box score:

T. D. X.	4	0	0	1	9
S. N.	0	0	0	0	0

Runs: McIntyre (2), Battle (2), Page (2), Sterrett, Baker, Newton. Two-baggers: Sterrett, Battle (2). Home runs: Page. Struck out: By Battle, 19; by Keller, 5.

The game was fairly free from errors, Sigma Nu making two while the Theta-Delta sheet was clear.

Those games called off today will be played at some future date to be determined.

ARCHERY PRACTICE OPEN; TOURNAMENT PLANNED

Archery practice has started again on the Ellipse every day from 1:30 to 3:30.

A spring tournament is being planned to be held some time in May. Anyone may enter this who has the required number of practices.

All interested should see Mary Sprout for all particulars in the gym office.

MANAGERSHIP OPEN

The position of Junior-Senior manager of Women's Track is still open. Applications should be made to Miss Atwell of the Physical Education Department.

Challenges Are Played On Girls' Tennis Team

Helen Zigler Defeats Margaret Blackstone To Take Ninth Position

Challenges for positions on the Women's Tennis team are now being played by members of the squad as well as those desiring positions on the team. The squad as it now stands is: (1) Mary Detweiler; (2) Mary Sproul; (3) Judith Fishburn; (4) Jenny Turnbull; (5) Marian Butler; (6) Helen Chafee; (7) Marian Lum; (8) Verna Parsons; (9) Helen Zigler; (10) Alice Mayo.

Practices for the varsity team are held on the Ellipse every day except Wednesday from 3:30 to 4:30.

Although definite dates have not as yet been set for the varsity games, the schools which will be played include Harrisonburg, William and Mary, and Hood College.

During the challenge matches played last week, most of the members of the squad retained their positions. However, Helen Zigler defeated Margaret Blackstone in a hard-fought match on Wednesday, April 2, with a score of 6-1, 6-4.

DR. RICHARDSON WRITES IN WATCHMAN-EXAMINER

Leading Baptist Paper Publishes G. W. Professor's Article This Month

The Watchman-Examiner, a leading Baptist paper, carries in its issue of this month an article entitled "Christian Education," by Dr. Edward Elliot Richardson, Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy at G. W.

That the works of Dr. Richardson, who devotes much of his time to philosophic and religious writings, are widely known and appreciated is evidenced by the request of "The Jewish Review of Italy" for permission to review his book, "Philosophy of Religion."

Professor Richardson recently read a paper on "Philosophy and Philosophy" before the Society for Philosophic Inquiry, of which he has just been re-elected president.

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM DEFEATS MARYLAND U.

Co-Eds To Close Season With Match With University of Washington

Another victory was chalked up by the George Washington University Rifle Team when it defeated Maryland University by one point in a telegraphic match held on Saturday, March 29.

Only the five high scores for each team are counted, as a rule, but as a result of a tie at 496 the next highest score was added to the total, giving George Washington the lead with 596 as against 595 for the Marylanders.

In past years the match, which is an annual affair, has been shot shoulder to shoulder, but because of the intramural rules all of the Maryland matches have been telegraphic this season.

The individual scores for the Co-Eds were: Spencer, 100; Collins, 100; Coren, 99; Cuyillier, 99; Weller, 99; Wright, 99.

The Maryland match is usually the last on the calendar for the G. W. Rifflers, but this season one of the most difficult of the schedule, that with the University of Washington, is yet to be run off. The Colonials completed their targets for this match two weeks ago, with a score of 495, but due to a misunderstanding of the conditions of the meet it must be reshot.

Varsity Tennis Team Tournay Progresses

Potomac Park Courts In Use; Meet With Maryland U. Opens Season

Applications for competition for the varsity tennis team were closed last Friday and a schedule for match-play has been arranged. Two brackets have been formed and the winners are to play for final positions on the varsity team.

American University will be met on April 11, but no official team will represent the school. The schedule officially begins when Maryland University is met on April 14.

Four courts in Potomac Park have been reserved on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 2 to 5 p. m., and three courts on Friday during the same hours while the tournament is in progress. There will be no competition over the week-end. Finals are to be played the following Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday on three courts between 2 and 5 p. m.

The two brackets with pairings, and time and place of play are posted in front of the gymnasium. Tickets are to be obtained from Max Farrington in the gym office.

BOSTON UNIV. DEBATE ENDS VARSITY SEASON

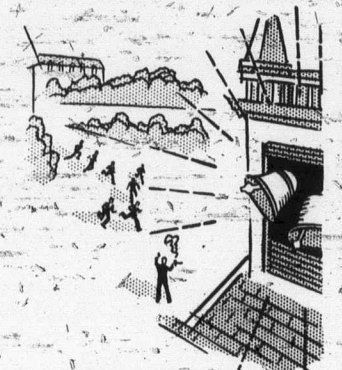

Two Contests During Past Week Herald Final Argument On Disarmament

Two debates held during the past week, one at home and one at Gettysburg, heralded the approaching close of the varsity debating campaign. But one more contest, that with Boston University here on Tuesday, April 15, remains on the 1930 program. In this debate G. W. will uphold the affirmative of the disarmament question.

Three competent and convincing orators from Western Reserve University on April 1 met a G. W. team on the question, "Resolved, That the nations should adopt a plan of complete disarmament except such forces as are necessary for police purposes." By a two to one vote of the judges, William MacConoughey, Arthur Fiske, and Roland B. Gittlesohn of Western Reserve, arguing the affirmative, won over Woodfin L. Butte, Paul Keough, and Charles Laughlin of George Washington.

The Oregon plan of debating was used. MacConoughey and Butte presented the formal arguments of their respective teams, and were then cross-examined by the second speakers on the opposite teams, Keough and Fiske. Laughlin then refuted Western Reserve arguments and summarized for G. W., while Gittlesohn closed by following the same procedure for Western Reserve.

Norman R. Hagen, Laughlin, and Butte comprised the George Washington University team which journeyed with Prof. Yeager, varsity debate coach, to Gettysburg on April 3. Arguing the negative of the same question as that debated with Western Reserve, these G. W. men met a team from Gettysburg College in a no-decision debate.

To pipes, Men, to Pipes!

TRADITION has it that ye shall know the fellowship of pipes with seasoned, masculine, mellow men of every age and degree. Some try to join this brotherhood, yet fail, and are absolved as born to pipeless lives. But honest effort is required—each man's own, test with good tobacco in a good pipe.

That is the formula. Both pipe and tobacco must be good. The pipe must be pure of bowl, and the tobacco must be—

University Library Enriched By Addition of Rare Volume Donated By Former Student

Professor Francis William Schmidt announces the addition of another specimen to the library's collection of old volumes, through which the evolution of books may be traced. Printed about 1478, this incunabulum is in a remarkable state of preservation.

"Its pages are entirely free from discoloration. Despite its long existence, and its illuminated capitals, exquisitely wrought by hand, are as perfect as the day they were made," says Dr. Schmidt.

The book, which was purchased in Venice by Dr. Richardson of the Library of Congress, was procured for the university library by John A. New, also of the Library of Congress, and a former student in the Division of Library Science.

Bound in vellum, the volume, which is the only one of its kind in the United States, is worth about $150.

Y. W. C. A. WILL HOLD ELECTIONS OF OFFICERS

Major Officers For Next Year Will Be Elected at a Meeting, Thursday, April 12

Elections of the four major officers for the ensuing year of the student Y. W. C. A. will be held next Thursday, April 12, at 12 noon in C. H. 1 at a short Easter meeting. At the same time all Y girls should bring dyed Easter eggs for the children at Hillcrest, the City Orphanage.

Each year at Easter the G. W. Y gives each child there a basket filled with dyed eggs, chocolate novelties, and all the other things that children look for on Easter Sunday morning. All of the eggs should be in the hands of Roberta Wright, service chairman, by the day of the meeting, and they may be left in the Women's Building.

The nominating committee of the Y, composed of the senior girls of the cabinet, will present its report with the names of the girls whom they recommend for the positions of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

At the meeting the date of the closing banquet to be held by the student Y. W. C. A. this year for the first time will be announced. It will probably be the first week in May, and will be held at the city Y at 17th and K streets, at a nominal supper charge. All women students of the University, whether or not they are members of the Y, are invited to attend the banquet, at which time an installation service will be held for the newly elected cabinet. At the banquet the names of the girls who will comprise the G. W. delegation to the summer conference will be announced. This year the joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Student Conference of the Middle Atlantic Section will be held at Forest Park, Pa., which is about eighteen miles from Stroudsburg, from June 11 to 21. There will probably be four or five delegates from the G. W. Y. W. C. A., but other students are also urged to attend the conference. Additional information may be secured from the office of Mrs. Barrows.

At the banquet an effort will be made to have all of the former presidents and cabinet members of the G. W. Y. W. C. A. in attendance. This is the tenth year of the student Y. W. C. A. on the G. W. campus, and an invitation will be extended to past officers of the association.

HONOR MARKS ANNOUNCED
The School of Engineering announces that twenty-six students have completed fifteen hours or more toward a degree with an average grade of "B" or higher.

They are: D. Affleck, R. J. Alpher, B. H. Benson, E. B. Chiswell, P. Chrzastowski, C. L. Critchfield, William A. Crouse, Edw. F. Davis, D. A. Dreyfuss, A. R. Eno, S. G. Hall, D. M. DEAN DOYLE ELECTED TO OFFICE BY PI DELTA

Wingo and Angel Awarded Prizes For Journalistic Efforts On Hatchet Staff

Dean Henry Gratton Doyle was chosen grand secretary of Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary collegiate journalism fraternity, during the course of its twentieth annual convention, held at Pennsylvania State College last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. At the same time it was announced that a news story and an editorial written by members of The Hatchet staff last year had won prizes in the 1929 contest of the fraternity.

James G. Wingo was awarded fourth place in the news story contest for his signed article, entitled "G. W. Girls' Team Loses Debate to British Invaders," which appeared in The Hatchet of November 7, 1928. Herbert E. Angel's editorial, "Freedom of the Press," published in The Hatchet for February 13, 1929, tied with that of a college paper in Tulsa for fourth and fifth places. Wingo will receive $5 as his prize, while Angel will get one-half of the total of the fourth and fifth prizes, or $12.50. News stories and editorials for the Pi Delta contest were submitted to the number of several hundred from leading college newspapers throughout the country, and were judged by ten outstanding journalists of Washington and New York.

Delegates Attend Smoker
Petitioning groups at the University of Maryland, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Middlebury College, and Wittenburg College were granted charters.

Delegates attending the convention were guests at a smoker Thursday night, were present at the annual banquet Friday night, and later went to the first interfraternity ball ever held at Penn State, and on Saturday visited nearby caverns, attended a performance given by the Troupian Club, and ended the evening at dances given by fraternities on the campus.

George Washington University chapter was represented by Herbert E. Angel, president, and Erwin Stumm, Dean Doyle and Reese E. Sewell, graduate business manager of The Hatchet, also attended the convention.

G. W. ALUMNI IN PARIS
March 21, 1930
The Editor, The University Hatchet.

Dear Sir: You will be interested, I believe, in knowing that the fraternity men of the United States Universities met in Paris during the month of December to organize an Interfraternity Association.

On the night of March 13 the Interfraternity Association gave a banquet and George Washington University led with the highest number of representatives present. At the meeting 30 members were present, 29 colleges were represented, 20 fraternities were represented, George Washington led the Universities with 3 representatives, and Sigma Chi led the fraternities with 6 members.

The representatives of George Washington University were A. W. Ryan, '07, Sigma Chi; Julian M. Thomas, '17, Theta-Delta Chi; and Milton L. Dennis, Acadia. The banquet was held at the Restaurant Laurent, Avenue des Champs-Elysees.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) MILTON L. DENNIS.

Graduate School Has Requirements Changed

Grades of "B" or Better Must Be Obtained In All Courses

The Graduate School of Letters and Sciences has announced a change in its requirements, to be placed in effect in the near future. Beginning next fall, according to Dean Henning, of the Graduate School, all new students—that is, students who have not previously enrolled in that department—will be required to attain a grade of "B," or better, in each course. Formerly students were merely required to average "B" for all courses. This will tend to raise the standard of the school, placing it in a class with the recognized leaders in the educational field.

Beginning in the fall of 1931, all candidates for the degree of Master of Arts must have a reading knowledge of at least one foreign language, in order to be admitted to candidacy. Dean Henning pointed out that this requirement would not only raise the standard of the school but would also add to the breadth of viewpoint of the individual, so necessary to this degree.

DEBATE TOURNAMENT FOR GREEKS TO START

First Elimination To Be Held April 17 For Fraternities and Sororities

The meeting of representatives from each fraternity and sorority to discuss the debating tournament was held Wednesday evening, April 2, with Professor Yeager presiding.

Two debaters from each sorority and fraternity are to debate. There are to be elimination debates, then finals. The first elimination is to be April 17.

The subject for the women is: "Resolved, That the regular full time employment of married women in industry should be discouraged." The men will debate on: "Resolved, That installment buying of consumer goods is detrimental to public welfare."

For the first round each organization will debate at 8 p. m., April 17.

Fraternities
1. Kappa Alpha, affirmative; Theta Delta Chi, negative. W-15
2. Phi Sigma Kappa, affirmative; Acadia, negative. W-17
3. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, affirmative; Sigma Chi, negative. W-23
4. Sigma Phi Epsilon, affirmative; Delta Tau Delta, negative. W-23
5. Tau Alpha Omega, affirmative; Theta Upsilon Omega, negative. W-24

Sororities
1. Phi Sigma Sigma, affirmative; Kappa Delta, negative. W-25
2. Alpha Epsilon Phi, affirmative; Pi Beta Phi, negative. W-27
3. Zeta Tau Alpha, affirmative; Alpha Delta Pi, negative. W-32
4. Alpha Delta Zeta, affirmative; Delta Zeta, negative. W-33
5. Kappa Kappa Gamma, drew a bye in the first round.

HONOR ROLL CORRECTED

In announcing the honor roll of the School of Education the name of Evelyn M. Folsom was accidentally omitted.

According to an announcement by the department, the rules pertaining to the honor roll provide that any student, taking a minimum of 15 semester hours of work and making an average of B or higher, is placed on the honor roll and allowed cuts limited only by the students' discretion. Any errors which may have been made in applying this rule should be reported to the Dean of the School of Education.

TELEPHONE EXECUTIVE TO SPEAK AT BANQUET

Prominent Engineers and Officials of University to Attend Affair Saturday at Mayflower

General R. I. Rees, personnel director of the Bell Telephone System and President of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, heads the list of prominent engineers who will be heard at the annual Engineering Banquet, Saturday evening, April 12, at 7:30, in the Chinese Room of the Mayflower Hotel.

L. W. Wallace, executive secretary of the American Engineering Council, will attend and speak. Representatives of the local branches of the American electrical, civil and mechanical engineering societies will also be present. Edward S. Pardoe, an engineering graduate of the class of 1924, will preside.

President Cloyd Heck Marvin, of the University, and Dean John R. Lapham, of the School of Engineering, will be honored guests. Dean Lapham will present the Sigma Tau freshman engineering medal to Charles Louis Critchfield, last year's winner.

Glee Club to Sing
Entertainment will be furnished by the George Washington Glee Club. Other features include a dancing act by a prominent local team.

Substantial support of the banquet, by students and alumni, has been evidenced by the ticket sale. A large attendance is anticipated. All those who served on last year's banquet committee, some of them now alumni, have lent assistance and counsel to the present committee.

Seeking an alumnus of George Washington for the position of toastmaster, the committee selected Edward S. Pardoe, now with the Capital Traction Company, who has established a reputation in local engineering circles.

ORATORY CONTESTANTS TO COMBAT THIS FRIDAY

Try-outs for the sixth National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest on the Constitution will take place this Friday, April 11, at 8 p. m. in W-29. A representative for George Washington University in the national contest will be chosen at that time.

There are seven major zones embracing the entire United States in each of which colleges and universities will compete among themselves. Prizes totaling $5,000.00 are to be awarded in these national finals.

Any undergraduate in George Washington University is eligible to participate in the try-outs. Further information may be secured from Professor Yeager in Building L.

BAPTIST MEETING PLANNED

Miss Ethel McConnell, Southern Student Secretary of Nashville, Tenn., will hold a meeting with the Baptist Student Union in L-22 on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, April 16, 17, 18. She is going to bring news from other colleges which is needed in the organization.

Doyle And Ahumada Aid Spanish Club

Mulhagen and Layton Are Elected Officers of Club Organized Recently

Meeting last Thursday night in Corcoran Hall, a group of students in the Spanish classes at the University formed the nucleus of a Spanish Club, sponsored by Dean Henry Gratton Doyle and Senorita Ahumada, of Chile, who began teaching Spanish here at the first of the present term.

At this meeting, temporary officers were elected to serve until the club becomes well organized. It was decided to hold the meetings semi-monthly, on alternate Thursdays. The next meeting will be at 8:15 Thursday night, April 17, in Corcoran Hall. The officers who will conduct this meeting are Verna Mulhagen, president, and Norma Layton, secretary.

The purpose of the club is to encourage the study of Spanish in the University, and to give interesting sidelights on life in the Spanish-speaking countries. To this end Dean Doyle has promised to get speakers from the Pan-American Union and the various legations in Washington to address the meetings.

All students of Spanish, and those interested in the work of the club, are urged to attend the next meeting. Further announcements will be made in the classes and on the bulletin boards.
